

Key message shown in this picture: If you have continuous dry cough and high fever (like Malaria) go to the clinic and be checked, or self isolate and inform the authorities.

Key message shown in this picture: Do not be afraid to go to hospital. You can expect all medical staff to have full personal protection gear to prevent spread of the virus. Then go home and self isolate.